- (a) the Commissioner (Appeals) shall prepare a show-cause notice containing the reasons for such enhancement or reduction, as the case may be, and send such notice through the National Faceless Appeal Centre;
- (b) the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall serve the notice, as referred to in sub-clause (a), upon the appellant;
- (c) the appellant shall, within the date and time specified in the notice or such extended date and time as may be allowed on the basis of application made in this behalf, furnish his response to the National Faceless Appeal Centre;
- (d) where a response is furnished by the appellant, the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall send such response to the Commissioner (Appeals), or where no such response is furnished, inform the Commissioner (Appeals) accordingly.
- (x) The Commissioner (Appeals) shall, thereafter:-
- (a) prepare in writing, an appeal order in accordance with the provisions of section 251 of the Act stating the points for determination, the decision thereon and the reason for decision; and

- (b) send such order after signing the same digitally to the National Faceless Appeal Centre along with the details of the penalty proceedings, if any, to be initiated therein;
- (xi) the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall upon receipt of the order, as referred to in sub-clause (b) of clause (x), —
  - (a) communicate such order to the appellant;
  - (b) communicate such order to the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner as per sub-section (7) of section 250 of the Act;
  - (c) communicate such order to the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, for such action as may be required under the Act;
  - (d) where initiation of penalty has been recommended in the order, serve a notice on the appellant calling upon him to show cause as to why penalty should not be imposed upon him under the relevant provisions of the Act;

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-paragraph (1), the appeal, may be transferred at any stage of the appellate proceedings, if considered necessary, by an order in accordance with section 120 of the Act, to such Commissioner (Appeals) as may be specified in the order.

6. Penalty proceedings— (1) Commissioner (Appeals) may, in the course of appeal proceedings, for non-compliance of any notice, direction or order issued under this Scheme on the part of the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, send a notice to the appellant through the National Faceless Appeal Centre for initiation of any penalty proceedings calling upon the appellant to show cause as to why penalty should not be imposed upon him under the relevant provisions of the Act.

(2) The National Faceless Appeal Centre shall, upon receipt of notice under sub-paragraph (1), serve the same on the appellant or any other person, as the case may be.

(3) The appellant or any other person, as the case may be, shall furnish a response to the show-cause notice referred to in sub-paragraph (2) or in sub-clause (d) of clause (xi) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 5, within the date and time specified in such notice or such extended date and time as may be allowed on the basis of application made in this behalf, to the Commissioner (Appeals) through the National Faceless Appeal Centre.

(4) The National Faceless Appeal Centre shall send the response furnished by the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, to the Commissioner (Appeals) or where no such report is furnished, inform the Commissioner (Appeals) accordingly.

(5) The Commissioner (Appeals) shall, after taking into account all the relevant material available on the record, including the response furnished, if any, by the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, —

- (a) prepare a penalty order and send a copy of such order after digitally signing the same to the National Faceless Appeal Centre; or
- (b) drop the penalty after recording reasons, under intimation to the National Faceless Appeal Centre.

(6) In a case where the Commissioner (Appeals) has dropped the penalty, the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall send an intimation thereof, or where the Commissioner (Appeals) sends the order for imposition of penalty, the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall communicate such order, to, —

- (a) the appellant or any other person, as the case may be; and
- (b) the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, for such action as may be required under the Act.

7. Rectification Proceedings. — (1) With a view to rectifying any mistake apparent from the record the Commissioner (Appeals) may amend any order passed by it in accordance with the provisions of the Act, by an order to be passed in writing.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Scheme, an application for rectification of mistake referred to in sub-paragraph (1) may be filed with the National Faceless Appeal Centre by:-

- (a) the appellant or any other person, as the case may be; or

(b) the Commissioner (Appeals) who has passed the appeal order; or

(c) the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be.

(3) Where any application referred to in sub-paragraph (2) is received by the National Faceless Appeal Centre, it shall assign such application to a Commissioner (Appeals) through an automated allocation system.

(4) The Commissioner (Appeals) shall examine the application and send the notice to the National Faceless Appeal Centre for granting an opportunity—

(a) to the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, where the application has been filed by the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be; or

(b) to the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, where the application has been filed by the appellant or any other person, as the case may be; or

(c) to the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, and the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, where the application has been filed by the Commissioner (Appeals) referred to in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (2).

(5) The National Faceless Appeal Centre shall serve the notice referred to in sub-paragraph (4) upon the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, or the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, calling upon him to show cause as to why rectification of mistake should not be carried out under the relevant provisions of the Act.

(6) The appellant or any other person, as the case may be, or the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, shall furnish a response to the notice, as referred to in sub-paragraph (5), within the date and time specified therein, or such extended date and time as may be allowed on the basis of an application made in this behalf, to the National Faceless Appeal Centre.

(7) Where a response, as referred to in sub-paragraph (6), is furnished by the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, or the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall send such response to the Commissioner (Appeals), or where no such response is furnished, inform the Commissioner (Appeals) accordingly.

(8) The Commissioner (Appeals) shall, after taking into consideration the application and response, if any, furnished by the appellant or any other person, as the case may be, or the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, by an order in writing, —

(a) rectify the mistakes; or

(b) reject the application for rectification, citing reasons thereof, and send the order after digitally signing it to the National Faceless Appeal Centre.

(9) The National Faceless Appeal Centre shall upon receipt of rectification order, as referred to in sub-paragraph (8), communicate such order,—

(a) to the appellant or any other person, as the case may be; and

(b) to the Assessing Officer either directly or through the National Faceless Assessment Centre, as the case may be, for such action as may be required under the Act.

8. Appellate Proceedings.—(1) An appeal against an order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) under this Scheme shall lie before the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal having jurisdiction over the jurisdictional Assessing Officer of the appellant assessee.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 of the scheme, where any order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) is set-aside and remanded back to the Commissioner (Appeals) by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal or High Court or Supreme Court, the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall assign the order to a Commissioner (Appeals) for further action in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme.

9. Exchange of communication exclusively by electronic mode.—For the purposes of this Scheme,—

- (a) all communications between the National Faceless Appeal Centre and the appellant, or his authorised representative, shall be exchanged exclusively by electronic mode; and
- (b) all internal communications between the National Faceless Appeal Centre, the National Faceless Assessment Centre, the Assessing Officer and the appeal unit shall be exchanged exclusively by electronic mode.

10. Authentication of electronic record.— For the purposes of this Scheme, an electronic record shall be authenticated by—

- (i) the Commissioner of Income-tax (Appeals), in case of order passed under clause (x) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 5 or under sub-paragraph (5) of paragraph (6 or under sub-paragraph (8) of paragraph 7, by affixing his digital signature;
- (ii) the National Faceless Appeal Centre by affixing digital signature of the authorised signatory on its behalf, for all communication made on behalf of Commissioner (Appeals), other than the orders referred to in clause (i);
- (iii) the appellant or any other person, by affixing his digital signature or under electronic verification code or by logging into his registered account in the designated portal;

Explanation. – For the purpose of this paragraph, “electronic verification code” shall have the same meaning as referred to in rule 12 of the Rules.

11. Delivery of electronic record.—(1) Every notice or order or any other electronic communication under this Scheme shall be delivered to the addressee, being the appellant, by way of-

- (a) placing an authenticated copy thereof in the appellant’s registered account; or
- (b) sending an authenticated copy thereof to the registered email address of the appellant or his authorised representative; or
- (c) uploading an authenticated copy on the Mobile App of the appellant followed by a real time alert.

(2) Every notice or order or any other electronic communication under this Scheme shall be delivered to the addressee, being any other person, by sending an authenticated copy thereof to the registered email address of such person, followed by a real time alert.

(3) The appellant shall furnish his response to any notice or order or any other electronic communication, under this Scheme, through his registered account, and once an acknowledgement is sent by the National Faceless Appeal Centre containing the hash result generated upon successful submission of response, the response shall be deemed to be authenticated.

(4) The time and place of dispatch and receipt of electronic record shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 13 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000).

12. No personal appearance in the Centres or Units.—(1) A person shall not be required to appear either personally or through authorised representative in connection with any proceedings under this Scheme before the income-tax authority at the National Faceless Appeal Centre or appeal unit set up under this Scheme.

(2) The appellant or his authorised representative, as the case may be, may request for personal hearing so as to make his oral submissions or present his case before the Commissioner (Appeals), through the National Faceless Appeal Centre, under this Scheme.

(3) The concerned Commissioner (Appeals) shall allow the request for personal hearing and communicate the date and time of hearing to the appellant through the National Faceless Appeal Centre.

(4) Such hearing shall be conducted through video conferencing or video telephony, including use of any telecommunication application software which supports video conferencing or video telephony, to the extent technologically feasible, in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Board.

(5) Any examination or recording of the statement of the appellant or any other person shall be conducted by Commissioner (Appeals) under this Scheme, exclusively through video conferencing or video telephony, including use of any telecommunication application software which supports video conferencing or video telephony, to the extent technologically feasible, in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Board.

(6) The Board shall establish suitable facilities for video conferencing or video telephony including telecommunication application software which supports video conferencing or video telephony at such locations as may be necessary, so as to ensure that the appellant, or his authorised representative, or any other person is not denied the benefit of this Scheme merely on the ground that such appellant or his authorised representative, or any other person does not have access to video conferencing or video telephony at his end.

13. Power to specify format, mode, procedure and processes.—The Principal Chief Commissioner of Income-tax or the Principal Director General of Income-tax, in charge of the National Faceless Appeal Centre shall, with the prior approval of Board, lay down the standards, procedures and processes for effective functioning of the National Faceless Appeal Centre and the appeal unit set-up under this Scheme, in an automated and mechanised environment, including format, mode, procedure and processes in respect of the following, namely:—

- (i) service of the notice, order or any other communication;
- (ii) receipt of any information or documents from the person in response to the notice, order or any other communication;
- (iii) issue of acknowledgment of the response furnished by the person;
- (iv) provision of “e-appeal” facility including login account facility, tracking status of appeal, display of relevant details, and facility of download;
- (v) accessing, verification and authentication of information and response including documents submitted during the appellate proceedings;
- (vi) receipt, storage and retrieval of information or documents in a centralised manner;
- (vii) general administration and grievance redressal mechanism in the respective Centres and units;
- (viii) filing of additional ground of appeal;
- (ix) filing of additional evidence.

14. Application of provisions of the Act.- Save as otherwise provided in this Scheme, the provisions of clause (16A) of section 2, section 120, section 129, section 131, section 133, section 134, section 136, section 140, section 154, section 155, section 282, section 282A, section 283, section 284, Chapter XX and Chapter XXI, and other provisions of the Act, shall apply to the procedure in disposal of appeal by Commissioner (Appeals).
