These FAQs do not constitute legal advice but are intended to provide clarity on the concepts related to the IFSCA (AML, CTF and KYC) Guidelines, 2022 (“Guidelines”). Any queries about the Guidelines may be addressed to Division of AML/CFT at aml-cft-div@ifsc.gov.in. In case of any disparity between these FAQs and the provisions of relevant Acts/rules/regulations/ Guidelines, the later shall prevail.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I. Applicability of the International Financial Services Centres Authority (Anti Money Laundering, Counter-Terrorist Financing and Know Your Customer) Guidelines, 2022:

1. The International Financial Services Centres Authority (Anti Money Laundering, Counter-Terrorist Financing and Know Your Customer) Guidelines, 2022 ('Guidelines') are applicable to which entities?

As per clause 1.2 of Chapter-I of the Guidelines, it shall be applicable to every Regulated Entity (RE) which is licensed, recognized, registered by International Financial Services Centres Authority (IFSCA) and also to the Regulated Entities authorised by it, to the extent specified.

The provisions of the Guidelines shall also apply to the Financial Group of the Regulated Entity, to such an extent as specified in Chapter-XII of the Guidelines.

II. Appointment of Designated Director and Principal Officer

2. Can the Designated Director and Principal Officer be the same person?

The Designated Director and Principal Officer shall be different individuals.

3. Who can be designated as Designated Director?

The Prevention of Money-laundering (Maintenance of Records) Amendment Rules, 2022 issued vide gazette notification dated 13th July 2022, stipulates that if the reporting entity is located in IFSC, Designated Director (DD) includes a person who is heading the reporting entity.

The head of the regulated entity in IFSC can be designated as Designated Director.

4. Who can be designated as Principal Officer?

Chapter-VIII, clause 8.2 (c) & (f) of the Guidelines, stipulates that any person having necessary seniority and authority within the Regulated Entity and distinct from the internal audit and business line functions of RE shall be designated as Principal Officer (PO).

5. Can a legal entity be designated as Designated Director or Principal Officer?

The Designated Director or Principal Officer shall be a natural person; no legal entity or any other juridical person can be designated as Designated Director or Principal Officer by Regulated Entity.

6. Can a Principal Officer of a Fund Management Entity (FME) under the IFSCA (Fund Management) Regulations, 2021 (FM Regulations) be designated as Principal Officer in respect of Guidelines?

The Principal Officer under the FM Regulations shall be responsible for the overall activities of the FME.

To enable unbiased judgments and facilitate impartial advice to management, the Principal Officer under the Guidelines should be distinct from the internal audit and business line functions (refer clause 8.2 (f) of the Guidelines).

Thus, the Principal Officer of an FME under the FM Regulations is not eligible to be designated as Principal Officer in respect of IFSCA (AML/CFT/KYC) Guidelines, 2022.

7. Can a Principal Officer of an FME under the FM Regulations be designated as Designated Director with respect to Guidelines?

If the Principal Officer of an FME under the FM Regulations is the head of the Regulated Entity, in such case, by virtue of The Prevention of Money-laundering (Maintenance of Records) Amendment Rules, 2022 issued vide gazette notification dated 13th July 2022, such Principal Officer an FME under the FM Regulations can be designated as Designated Director.
